DANDIYA NIGHT 2023

The cultural committee organised DANDIYA NIGHT for the students of MBBS from all phases as well as allied students on 22nd October 2023 as part of the Dusshera celebrations. It was conducted at the Anatomy quadrangle from 5-9 PM.

The campus came alive with vibrant colors and rhythmic beats as students gathered for the much-anticipated Dandiya Night. The event drew an impressive turnout, with students showcasing their enthusiasm by donning traditional attire. The venue sparkled with colorful lights, creating a lively and joyous atmosphere.

The highlight of the night was the energetic Dandiya and Garba performances, where students displayed their skillful moves and infectious energy. The dance floor pulsated with the rhythmic beats as students danced to the DJ set up. The event served as a perfect platform for students to unwind, socialize, and celebrate the cultural diversity within the college community. Feedback from participants echoed the success of the Dandiya Night, praising the meticulous planning and the spirited execution of the event.

the Dandiya Night not only celebrated the essence of Navratri but also fostered a sense of unity and cultural appreciation among the students. The event was a resounding success, creating cherished memories for all who attended.

Turncoat Competition

Venue: Physiology Lecture Hall

Time: 3-5pm

The Clinical Gender Champions in collaboration with the Magazine Committee of JNMC organised a Turncoat debate competition "Rhetorical Rumble" as an event for the fun week, DARPAN'23 in collaboration with the Clinical Gender Champions. The Turncoat Competition had several different prompts to choose from for the participant. Each participant spoke about their prompt for 3 minutes while changing their stance to the opposite every time there was an intimation. This not only made the chaotic debating style fun and engaging, while at the same time made the event a great creative space to linger within.

The event was conducted from 5 - 6pm at the Physiology Lecture Hall on 13th April, 2023 (Thursday)

The Prompts for the Turncoat debate were-

Same Sex Marriage rights are a threat to India's Foundational framework Along with several other gender related topics.

The Judges for the event were:

"Persuasive Pandemonium" Extempore Competition

Venue: Pharmacology Lecture Hall

Time: 3-5pm

The Clinical Gender Champions of JNMC in collaboration with the Magazine committee, organised an extempore competition "Persuasive Pandemonium"

The Extempore Competition had 30 different prompts for every participant with topics revolving around the current Gender related society concerns such as "Paternity Leave – A Demanding need or an unnecessary need" in today's scenarios. Each participant eloquently talked for 3 minutes about their opinions, stances and interpretation to their allotted prompt on the spot and the entire event was a wholesome understanding to all such prompts at hand.

The event was conducted from 3-5pm at the Pharmacology Lecture Hall on 17th May, 2023 (Wednesday)

The Judges for the event were:

1. Dr. Smitha K. S.

Professor

Department of Ophthalmology

"Rhetorical Rumble" Turncoat Competition

Venue: Physiology Lecture Hall

Time: 3-5pm

The Magazine Committee of JNMC organised a Turncoat debate competition "Rhetorical Rumble" as an event for the fun week, DARPAN'23 in collaboration with the Clinical Gender Champions.

The Turncoat Competition had 4 different prompts to choose from for the participant. Each participant spoke about their prompt for 3 minutes while changing their stance to the opposite every time there was an intimation. This not only made the chaotic debating style fun and engaging, while at the same time made the event a great creative space to linger within.

The event was conducted from 5 - 6pm at the Physiology Lecture Hall on 13th April, 2023 (Thursday)

The Prompts for the Turncoat debate were-

- 1. Horoscopes are a lucid myth.
- 2. Right to Health is a violation to medical practitioners.
- 3. Legal age for Alcohol consumption is a necessary implication.
- 4. Same Sex Marriage rights are a threat to India's Foundational framework.

The Judges for the event were:

- 1. Dr. Madhav Prabhu
 - Professor

Department of General Medicine

2. Dr. Nirmala S. Anand

Associate Professor

Department of Physiology

REPORT HAND HYGIENE AWARENESS CAMP

The Youth Red Cross unit of J. N. Medical College organized a Hand Hygiene Awareness Camp at Rukmini Nagar Anganwadi on 05/05/23.

The session started at 9:30 am at the Rukmini Nagar Anganwadi. A total of 7 volunteers attended the session. A total of 30 participated in the event. The volunteers briefed the children about the importance of handwashing and the instances where handwashing is essential were highlighted. The procedure of handwashing was explained with the use of posters. Stickers were distributed to the children to encourage better hand hygiene practices. The event was concluded at 12:30PM.

REPORT ON DANDIYA EVENING 20TH OCTOBER 2023.

On the occasion of Navratri festival, KAHER Institute of nursing Sciences organized a garba and dandiya evening for the students and teachers in the pharmacy parking area on 20th October 2023. All the students, teaching and non-teaching staff were invited for the event.

The function started at 6 pm and ended at 8 pm. The event was attended by all the enthusiastic students and faculty with their colorful dandiyas tapping to the spectacular music. A strong bond was visualized between teachers and students. Everyone was deeply synced with the beats of the music and tapping their toes with the rejoicing music on the steps of garba.

All of them celebrated the day with joy and cheer. It was a colorful event with the teachers joining the students enthusiastically in the dance. The event became an excellent example of celebration of tradition with joy and fervor at its fullest.

Joint efforts of the SNA team and smooth coordination by the members made the event a huge success
