Dear Friends and Colleagues,

It is our pleasure to invite you on behalf of organizing team to the Annual CME on TRANSLATIONAL MEDICINE : CURRENT STATUS AND FUTURE PERSPECTIVES at the Department of Pharmacology, J.N. Medical College, Belagavi on 24th March, 2023. The event is another endeavour in continuation to the yearly series of academic programs organized by Department of Pharmacology and Local IPS branch, Belagavi.

Translational Medicine: A two-way path

The purpose of translational research is to test, in humans, novel therapeutic strategies developed through experimentation. Translational research should be regarded as a two-way road: Bench to Bedside and Bedside to Bench. However, Bedside to Bench efforts have regrettably been limited because the scientific aspects are poorly understood by full time clinicians and the difficulty of dealing with humans poorly appreciated by basic scientists. This approach may focus both basic and clinical scientists and those struggling to fill the gap between them on the effective treatment of diseases affecting women, men and children making translational research more than an interesting concept.

Indigenous Invention for Atmanirbhar Orthopaedics

ಸ್ವದೇಶಿ ಆವಿಷ್ಕಾರ ; ಸ್ವಾವಲಂಬಿ ಮೂಳೆಚಿಕಿತ್ಸೆ

3rd - 5th February 2023

KLE Centenary
Convention Centre,
Belagavi

My Dear Colleagues and Friends,

I am honored and privileged for this opportunity to address you all on behalf of Karnataka Orthopaedic Association and KOACON-2023.

We are passing through a new and unprecedented experience of a pandemic that shook the world but the resolve our society has shown to fight and overcome these adversities have been extraordinary.

As the saying goes "Tough times never last but tough people do"; hopefully and God willing we are through the rough times.

Even in these difficult times KOA has continuously made innumerable contributions towards academics ,research and training of Orthopaedic Surgeons and Post Graduate Residents across Karnataka in the form of Webinars and Virtual meets.

I like to thank the previous Presidents and office bearers for making this happen with their innovative ideas during this period.

My theme for this year will be: "Mobile life is healthy life".

Mobility plays a massive role in the quality of life of an individual. We will focus mainly on maintaining mobility and preventing disability which would enable people to enjoy a pain-free life.

We will also assure equal opportunities in academics and surgical training across the whole state by breaking all the barriers and differences.

Hopefully we will be able to reach every place in the state with the guidance of seniors and leaders in our field and propagate the current standards of orthopaedics in the form of CME , Lectures and Webinars.

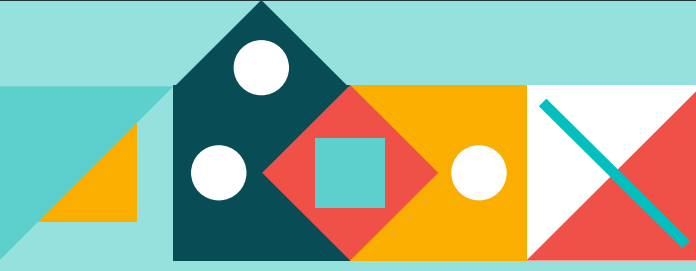

KOACON 2023, in Belagavi will be an opportunity , where all of us can come together even in these ever changing situations and difficult time to share our thoughts ,ideas and research among our colleagues and friends.

We know that organizers of KOACON 2023 are doing a tremendous job in trying to organize this mega event and we all should take this opportunity to make this academic feast a huge success and cherish this opportunity to meet our friends, seniors and students.

I assure that this will be a memorable and lasting experience to remember and hoping to see each and every one of you in person.

Thanking you,

Dr. Aswani Kumar Singh J.
President
KOA (2022-2023)

Message from Organizing Committee

It gives us immense pleasure to invite you to the prestigious 47th Annual Conference of Karnataka Orthopaedic Association 2023 to be held in the Kunda nagari, Belagavi from February 3rd to 5th 2023 at Jawaharlal Nehru Medical College, Belagavi.

Annual Conference is such an incredible opportunity for surgeons to come together, learn, share, explore their thoughts and exchange ideas for better care of humanity. On day 1, CME is on Orthopaedic Oncology, designed to give a current review of musculoskeletal tumor pathology and principles of management. This course covers the most common and clinically relevant benign and malignant musculoskeletal tumors from diagnosis to integrated treatment and outcome.

Early diagnosis, appropriate treatment and rehabilitation have been the cornerstone in management of orthopaedic conditions, to enable individuals return to the best of their ability, has been the prime moto.

In keeping up with these demands, we proposed ಸ್ವದೇಶಿ ಆವಿಷ್ಕಾರ; ಸ್ವಾವಲಂಬಿ ಮೂಳೆಚಿಕಿತ್ಸೆ (Indigenous Invention for Atmanirbhar Orthopaedics) as the theme for this conference. There will be thought provoking didactic lectures, debates and case based discussions along with workshops. We have distinguished faculty from across the globe and nation who are masters in their fields to share their knowledge and expertise with us. We all hope that the exciting program planned at this conference will allow our Orthopaedic fraternity to jointly explore the current and future research directions and renew friendships.

We request you all to be part of this conference to learn, share and encourage your colleagues and postgraduate students to utilize this great opportunity.

ABOUT BELAGAVI

Belgaum lies in the northern part of Karnataka. Lying in the foothills of Western Ghats, this place is known for its scenic beauty and enjoys a cool and pleasant climate throughout the year. Surrounded by lush green forests, rivers, and mountains, Belgaum is breathtakingly beautiful and attracts tourists from all over the country and far off places.

Belgaum has flight connectivity with major cities like Mumbai, Bengaluru, Pune, Ahmedabad, Hyderabad, Jabalpur, Mangaluru, Indore, Ajmer, Tirupati, Mysuru and Kolhapur. Belgaum also has major rail network and road connectivity. It is also a major industrial hub in North Karnataka.

Belgaum is unique for its blend of local culture with a cosmopolitan vibe, due to the presence of one of the largest army bases in India, several educational universities welcoming students from all over the country.

Belagavi is a charming destination that boasts a plethora of natural wonders, historical landmarks, spiritual sites and several recreational activities including two golf courses.

Whether you're a history buff, a nature lover, a spiritual seeker or an adventure enthusiast, Belgaum has something to offer for everyone, and is the perfect choice for a quick escape to recharge your batteries.

RAJHANS GAD

Rajhans Gad was built by the Ratta dynasty and later rebuilt or renovated in stone by Asad Khan Lari, a Persian noble of Bijapur, while the Belagavi Fort was being built. The fort mainly served as an outpost of the Belagavi fort, to spot and prevent the enemies from attacking from Goa and Karwar areas. The Belagavi Fort and by extension, the Yellur Fort, was controlled by many rulers. Yellur Fort mainly served as a 'watchtower' as it allowed one to spot enemies approaching from a great distance due to its elevation.

KAMAL BASADI

Kamal Basadi of the two basadis located within the fort, the Kamala Basadi stands out as the more prominent one. This magnificent structure was built in 1204 by Bichana (or Bichiraja), a minister of Kartavirya IV of the Ratta dynasty. The Kamala Basadi, also known as the Ratta Jinalaya, boasts a star-shaped garbhagriha, an ardhmantapa, and a vestibule that leads to the frontal mukhamantapa.

Within the garbhagriha, visitors will find a stunning seated image of Neminatha, the 22nd Jain Tirthankara, carved from black stone. The navaranga's lathe-turned pillars are exquisitely engraved with floral and geometric designs, adding to the Basadi's overall beauty.

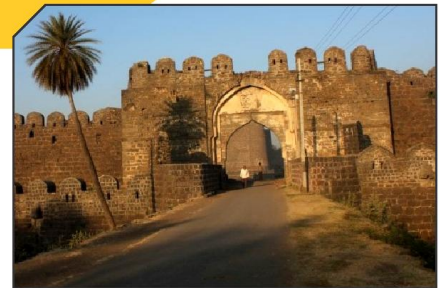

GOKAK FALLS

Gokak Falls is a breathtaking natural wonder located on the Ghataprabha River in the Belgaum district, just 6 km from Gokak town. The river meanders lazily through rugged terrain before taking a dramatic leap of 52m over a sandstone cliff into a picturesque gorge. At the crest, the falls form a stunning horseshoe shape with a flood breadth of 177m. During the rainy season, the thick reddish-brown water cascades over the brink of the cliff with a dull roar that can be heard from a distance. It's a truly awe-inspiring sight that will leave you feeling humbled by the power of nature.

KITTUR

Kittur, located 45 kilometers from Belagavi, is a place of great historical significance. It is renowned for the courageous resistance put up by Rani Channamma against the British in 1824.

A visit to the museum in Kittur is like taking a journey through time, back to the era of Rani Channamma's glory. The museum houses artifacts and exhibits that provide a glimpse into the life and times of this valiant woman. In honor of her memory, a nature park has been established where visitors can frolic and observe friendly deer and sambar.

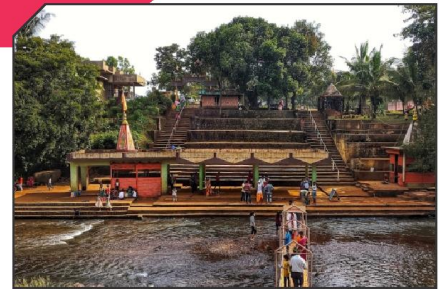

BHINGAD WILDLIFE SANCTUARY

Bhingad Wildlife Sanctuary is located in Khanapur taluk, Karnataka-Goa border in Belagavi district, and is spread over an area of around 190 sq km. This sanctuary is known for the Barapede caves, the only known breeding area of the Wroughton's Free-tailed Bat, a threatened species on the verge of extinction. The sanctuary is also home to other species like the Velvet-fronted Nuthatch, Malabar Grey Hornbill, Imperial Pigeon, Emerald Dove, and the elusive Malabar Trogon.

HABBANHATTI

Habbanhatti is small village on the banks of the river Malaprabha, which houses the Swayambhu Maruti Temple on the banks of the river. About 31 kms from Belagavi on the Jamboti Road, one can reach this place in a hours time and is a very good place for a short picnic.

The water in the river bed is very minimal except in the months of June to August and it is also very safe for the kids to play of course under the guidance of the elders.

DANDELI

Dandeli is made up of trails and green environment. The beauty of this place resides significantly in the adventurous hikes and beauty of Western Ghats. The untouched green landscapes house a staggering range of flora and fauna. Apart from the adventurous activities, there are several historical places including Ulavi temple, ancient caves of Kavla, and much more.

Dear Colleagues,

It gives us immense pleasure to invite you for the 23rd APPI National Seminar on the theme “Take Charge of your Bone Health”, under the patronage of Association of Physiologists and Pharmacologists, Belgaum Branch. Bone health is important at every age and stage of life. Think of your bones as a “bank” where you “deposit” and “withdraw” bone tissue. During your childhood and teenage years, new bone is added (or deposited) to the skeleton faster than old bone is removed (or withdrawn). As a result, your bones become larger, heavier, and denser.

For most people, bone formation continues at a faster pace than removal until sometime after the of age 20 years. After 30 years of age, bone withdrawals can begin to go faster than deposits. If your bone deposits don't keep up with withdrawals, you suffer osteoporosis in old age. Healthy bones also allow us to move, protect our vital organs, store nutrients and minerals that keep us alive. Without healthy bones, we are at greater risk of pain and fractures that can later lead to decreased quality of life. This National Seminar aims to update the importance of having good bone health at every age. Eminent resource persons from this field have been invited for deliberations. Looking forward for your active participation in large numbers at Belagavi.

A Wishbone, A Backbone and a Funny Bone”

Dear friends/colleagues,

It gives us immense pleasure in inviting you to the upcoming CME in Anaesthesiology, organized by ISA Belagavi city branch & Department of Anaesthesiology, Jawaharlal Nehru Medical College, KLE Academy of Higher Education and Research, Belagavi. The event is scheduled on 16th December 2023 and the theme chosen for this scientific program is “Peri operative coagulopathies & transfusion therapy: Emerging trends”, “Clot to Clarity”.

In the context of anaesthesia, addressing perioperative coagulopathies involves a comprehensive approach. Preoperative assessment of the patient's coagulation status is crucial. If coagulation abnormalities are identified, transfusion therapy with blood components may be initiated to correct specific deficiencies and prevent excessive bleeding during surgery.

Effective communication between anaesthesia, surgical and hematology teams is vital for a coordinated approach to manage perioperative coagulopathy and minimize the risk of bleeding complications.

This event is framed and designed to provide anaesthesiologists with clear guidance and expert references that will prove invaluable in management of a wide range of patients.

Karnataka Medical Council has awarded ‘Two’ credit hours for this academic event.

The organizing committee looks forward to your esteemed presence at Belagavi.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP: Evidence-based medicine (EBM) is the integration of best available research evidence with clinical expertise and patient values. The quality of evidence indicates the extent to which one can be confident that an estimate of effect is correct. Evidence-based medicine (EBM) promotes the concept that one should apply the best evidence from medical research, particularly that derived from randomized controlled trials (RCT), to the treatment of patients. The aim is not to exclude, but to add to the methods associated with traditional clinical practice: clinical experience, clinical reasoning and pathophysiological inference. Thus helping, the researchers/faculties to perform, interpret and implement evidence based medicine in day to day clinical practice and their research work.

WORKSHOP OBJECTIVES:

- Describe the principle, concept and rationale of EBM and EBP
- Describe the five steps of EBM Model/5As in EBM and formulating specific answerable question.
- Describe the process of critical appraisal of evidences and Apply and Assess process of EBM and EBP

About the Workshop:

The process of research and its importance is well known and authenticated by now in our field of Life sciences.

Most scientific studies need a strong lucrative financial support and backup and to gain such financial support its imperative that an impressive convincing research proposal be designed which not only helps in gaining the financial support by impressing the funding agency but also proves to be a road map for the studies. Several Scientists across the world are developing and discovering newer drug molecules and its essential that the same learnings and findings be conveyed in a structured manner to the peer scientific community. A well written research manuscript wherein the thoughts are well organised, the narrative has been well crafted and the new found language is shared can boost the chances of its selection and publication. Hence the aforesaid workshop has been organised which is tailor made and caters to the need of educating young budding research scholars to gain momentum in their research activities by obtaining funds and successfully and scientifically publishing the same in well reputed journals.

Innovative approaches have the potential to accelerate progress in health care and to lead to better health outcome for women.

Although, important progress has been made in the last two decades, about 2,87000 women died during and following pregnancy and childbirth in 2020.

There are a number of ways in which we can strengthen training of health care workers by providing access to accurate and current information regarding health conditions and treatment as well as the latest ideas on treating particular problems. Having this access allows frontline health workers to handle various illnesses.

Every pregnancy and birth is unique. Addressing inequalities that affect health outcomes, especially reproductive health is fundamental to ensuring all women have access to respectful and high-quality maternity care.

CNE ON DIABETIC CARE

VENUE

ORGANIZED BY

Department of Medical Surgical Nursing

OVERVIEW

Diabetes is a chronic, metabolic disease characterized by elevated levels of blood glucose (or blood sugar), which leads over time to serious damage to the heart, blood vessels, eyes, kidneys and nerves. The most common is type 2 diabetes, usually in adults, which occurs when the body becomes resistant to insulin or doesn't make enough insulin.

In the past 3 decades the prevalence of type 2 diabetes has risen dramatically in countries of all income levels. About 422 million people worldwide have diabetes, the majority living in low-and middle-income countries, and 1.5 million deaths are directly attributed to diabetes each year. Both the number of cases and the prevalence of diabetes have been steadily increasing over the past few decades.

Type 1 diabetes, once known as juvenile diabetes or insulin-dependent diabetes, is a chronic condition in which the pancreas produces little or no insulin by itself. For people living with diabetes, access to affordable treatment, including insulin, is critical to their survival. There is a globally agreed target to halt the rise in diabetes and obesity by 2025.

Learning Objectives

- To understand the etio-pathogenesis & clinical diagnostic criteria for diabetes.
- Analyze the diabetes treatment options such as, medication, diet, exercise and life style modifications.
- Apply the principles & demonstrate self-management skills to achieve diabetes control.
- Identify onset of complications & provide means of seeking appropriate and timely help.

Dear Colleagues / Friends

It gives us immense pleasure to announce a one day Hands-on workshop on “Clinical and Research Applications of Flow cytometry” organized by Dr. Prabhakar Kore Basic Science Research Centre [BSRC], KLE Academy of Higher Education and Research [KAHER], Belagavi – 590010, Karnataka, India.

Flow cytometry has contributed immensely to the developments in cell biology, biomarkers, immunology, immunopathology, vaccinology and other fields in health research. The technology permits analysis at a single cell level with ability to detect multiple markers with the help of a panel of fluorochromes conjugated to specific antibodies. Over last three decades flow cytometry has made tremendous advances and contributed to understanding of biological phenomenon, diagnosis and monitoring of diseases and development of preventive modalities. This workshop aims at introduction to the flow cytometry- principle and applications.

One day hands on workshop on 1st March is designed for clinicians, senior basic science faculty, midcareer laboratory scientists and research scholars. In order to be able to give hands on experience to all participants, only 20 participants will be enrolled.

We request you to encourage your staff / students to register for the workshop.

Dear Colleagues / Friends,

It gives us immense pleasure to invite you for the workshop on

“From Research to Publication: What Researchers Should Know” on Monday, 13th March 2023 being organized by KAHER’s University Department of Education for Health Professionals (UDEHP).

The term “Publish or Perish” signifies the need to continually publish to advance one’s academic career. As the pace of academic publishing continues to grow, so do the concerns on quantity over quality by individual faculty and by universities as a whole is a matter of concern. Publication in reputed journals increases the visibility and credibility of researchers and promotes career opportunities. Prioritization of quantity and journal metrics assess the quality of research outputs. Faculty have to understand multiple factors related to publication process in order to keep up in pace with ever increasing changes in this field. Thus this workshop is aimed to enrich the faculty with all the details related to the entire process of publication.

We request you to encourage your faculty to register for this workshop and learn from the experts. We are looking forward for your active participation in the workshop

Outcome Based Education

Organized By

Belagavi.

Venue: Seminal Hall, KAHER INS, Belagavi

Dear Colleagues / Friends:

It gives us immense pleasure to invite you for the workshop on “Outcome Based Education” on 04th May 2023 being organized by KAHER Institute of Nursing Sciences, Belagavi under the auspices of KAHER, Department of Education for Health Professionals (UDEHP).

Change is the only constant today, and with it, comes the need for education systems to update and adapt newer approaches of teaching – learning. Outcome-based methods have been adopted in education systems around the world, at multiple levels. It is an educational theory that bases each part of an educational system around goals (outcomes). The concept of outcome based education in nursing is associated with competency based education in more recent years. This approach identifies the requisite competencies required of graduates for health system performance; it tailors the curriculum to achieve competencies specified for education programs. Hence this workshop addresses the need to enhance the knowledge about OBE (Outcome Based Education) and implications in Teaching, Assessment and Evaluation.

We request you to encourage your faculty to register for this workshop and learn from the experts. We are looking forward for your active participation in the workshop.

Dear Colleagues / Friends,

It gives us immense pleasure to invite you for the workshop on "TEACHING LEARNING METHODOLOGY AND ASSESSMENT IN CBME" on 5th & 6th of July 2023 being organized by KAHER's Jagadguru Gangadhar Mahaswamigalu Moorosaviramath Medical College under the auspices of KAHER's Department of Education for Health Professionals (UDEHP).

Education is a dynamic process that has to be refined periodically. Lack of innovative teaching techniques in academics makes medical curricula inadequate in making a significant stride towards the future. Present teaching - learning methods make students give knowledge but fail to apply in real life situations. Hence we need to involve students in active learning by making them self-directed learners. Within the arena of medical education, it is generally acknowledged that assessment drives learning. Assessment is one of the most significant influences on a student's experience of higher education and improving assessment has a huge impact on the quality of learning and all these can be done through creative teaching-learning and assessment methods. Hence we have come up with this unique workshop which will incorporate creative teaching and assessment methods in traditional teaching and learning activities.

We request you to encourage your faculty to register for this workshop and learn from the experts. We are looking forward for your active participation in the workshop

ABOUT US

Dr. Prabhakar Kore Basic Science Research Centre [BSRC]: To augment the research activities, KLE Academy of Higher Education and Research [Deemed to be University] established a premier research centre in the name of our honourable Chancellor- "Dr.PRABHAKAR KORE BASIC SCIENCE RESEARCH CENTER".

The research centre is engaged in basic research with state-of-the-art facilities. The key areas are Molecular Biology, Medical Microbiology, Tissue Culture, Instrumentation Analysis and Natural Product Research.

VISION

To become a force to be reckoned with in the field of fundamental and applied research by nurturing individuals to inculcate critical skills through scientifically designed programs and practical interventions.

Dear Colleagues / Friends

It gives us immense pleasure to announce a one day Hands-on workshop on "Atomic Absorption Spectroscopy – Current Scenario and Future Prospects" organized by Dr.Prabhakar Kore Basic Science Research Centre [BSRC], KLE Academy of Higher Education and Research [KAHER], Belagavi – 590010. Karnataka, India.

Atomic absorption spectrometry (AAS) is a sophisticated, high-throughput, and relatively inexpensive technology used primarily to analyze elements in solution. As such, AAS is used in food and beverage, water, clinical research, and pharmaceutical analysis. It is also used in mining operations to determine, for instance, the percentage of precious metal in ores. AAS analysis helps to overcome challenges such as spectral interference and poor sensitivity associated with other methods addressed. The samples that contain toxic elements or high levels of solid material can be processed & analyzed.

This workshop aims at introducing the principles and application of AAS in Applied Biology and Pharmaceutical Field.

One day hands on workshop on 21st July is designed for clinicians, senior basic science faculty, midcareer laboratory scientists and research scholars. In order to be able to give hands on experience to all participants, only 30 participants will be enrolled.

We request you to encourage your staff / students to register for the workshop.

Looking forward to receiving your enthusiastic response.

Dear Colleagues / Friends,

It gives us immense pleasure to invite you for the workshop on “Simulation; An approach to teaching learning in virtual world/ Environment” on 17th November 2023 being organized by KAHER’s University Department of Education for Health Professionals (UDEHP).

Simulation and game-based techniques are becoming increasingly popular methods of inquiry into complex service-science-related problems and phenomena. Integrating these techniques and models into the curriculum allows for students to visually learn about the objects of their study and the related concepts, interact with processes, components, and systems, and understand the underlying dynamic behavior of the objects of their study. Such a learning experience is usually difficult to build using more traditional approaches such as case studies and experiential exercises. In this Program, after a brief introduction, we discuss the authors’ experience in using simulation and game-based and virtual environments, such as Second Life and Innov8, that lead to a more innovative teaching of service science concepts.

We request you to encourage your faculty to register for this workshop and learn from the experts. We are looking forward for your active participation in the workshop.

Dear Colleagues / Friends,

It gives us immense pleasure to invite you for the workshop on “Art of Grant Writing”: How to Write a Persuasive Proposal on 08th & 09th December 2023 being organized by KAHER’s University Department of Education for Health Professionals (UDEHP).

Writing research grants is a central part of any good quality research. Grant writing is a hefty undertaking; one must methodically sort through generating a hypothesis, planning a study, and logistically making it happen. Despite the large effort that goes into each grant application, success rates are low. High quality professional training programs for faculty members are essential to be able to compete in this ever-changing world. The faculty members affiliated to health science institutions should be trained in various elements that go into drafting a persuasive proposal. This workshop is aimed at equipping participants with sufficient skills to write a winning proposal.
