INFORMATION TO THE TWITTER READERS / VIEWERS

It has been observed that Ex. Army Dr. (Major) B.P.Singh, Former Assistant Medical Superintendent at KLE Dr. Prabhakar Kore Charitable Hospital, Belagavi which is the Teaching Hospital of Jawaharlal Nehru Medical College, Belagavi, a constituent unit of KLE Academy of Higher Education and Research, Deemed-to-be-University, Belagavi, Karnataka. is involved in malicious propaganda, spreading derogatory information about the University and its employees on social media and other platforms. It is reiterated here that the KLE University believes and follows the highest ethical and moral standards, ensures strict discipline among the employees and students, has a robust, structured governance and administrative structure.

It appears that this propaganda is done solely to malign the image of the University and mislead various regulatory bodies and Government agencies. We are open to any scrutiny by any agency and suggestions from any / all stakeholders are welcome. However, it is once again emphasized that the malicious propaganda be ignored and clarifications, if any, be sought directly from the officials of the University and its constituent colleges.
